

1 Remember the story

Answer in your own words. Look back at the story if you want.

- 1 Which shelf had Baila been permitted to use?

---

- 2 What temporary cabinet arrangement did Mrs. Berger set?

---

---

- 3 How did the class use the offcuts?

---

2 Fact or guess

Read each sentence. Circle Fact if the story shows it for sure.
Circle Guess if it is only an idea someone has.

- |   |                                                                  |      |       |
|---|------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------|
| 1 | Baila had permission for the lower shelf.                        | Fact | Guess |
| 2 | A prettier sign gave permission for any shelf.                   | Fact | Guess |
| 3 | Baila apologized.                                                | Fact | Guess |
| 4 | Mrs. Berger said Baila was dishonest forever.                    | Fact | Guess |
| 5 | Baila asked for paper instead of opening the cabinet on Tuesday. | Fact | Guess |
| 6 | The offcuts became backing pieces.                               | Fact | Guess |

Write one fact and one guess from your own day.

3 Think and write

Write what is true for you, or write about a made-up person. You do not have to share anything private.

- 1 Describe why a sincere apology and a practical consequence can both count.

- 2 Write an invented question that asks for permission before changing materials.

- 3 Use the fictional story to separate one wrong choice from a label about the whole person.

6 Say it out loud

Practice these out loud, or whisper them. Then write what you would say in your own words.

- 1 "I'm sorry for going past the permission you gave me."

- 2 "I can mean my apology and follow the temporary arrangement too."

---

- 3 "May I use material from that shelf before I take it?"

---

7 My chart

Use Baila’s fictional cabinet mistake. This story is not a reason to accept unsafe or humiliating treatment. A trusted grownup can help question confusing or harsh responses.

| Permission given | Choice that went past it | Clear related response | What the character can do next |
|------------------|--------------------------|------------------------|--------------------------------|

8 Draw it

Draw the two cabinet shelves, cut sign, backing scraps, and a Friday calendar square. Caption the clear permission and temporary limit. No people needed.

Answers for the grownup

This page is for checking. Fold it back or keep it for later.

Remember the story

Lower shelf. Ask the teacher for materials until Friday, rather than opening the cabinet. Small backing pieces for signs.
