

1 Remember the story

Answer in your own words. Look back at the story if you want.

1 Why was the garden visit replaced?

2 What was hidden inside the chest's drawer?

3 Why did Malky first hide her ticket?

2 Fact or guess

Read each sentence. Circle Fact if the story shows it for sure.
Circle Guess if it is only an idea someone has.

- | | | | |
|---|---|------|-------|
| 1 | The garden was closed for repairs. | Fact | Guess |
| 2 | Malky had visited the museum before judging it. | Fact | Guess |
| 3 | The drawer unfolded into a writing desk. | Fact | Guess |
| 4 | Her friends had to enjoy every exhibit too. | Fact | Guess |
| 5 | A bowl had three repair staples. | Fact | Guess |
| 6 | Malky drew the open desk at home. | Fact | Guess |

Write one fact and one guess from your own day.

3 Think and write

Write what is true for you, or write about a made-up person. You do not have to share anything private.

- 1 Write an invented sentence that allows two friends different opinions of an outing.

- 2 Describe how disappointment about one thing can coexist with enjoyment of another.

- 3 Write about a made-up character enjoying something without trying to persuade everyone else.

6 Say it out loud

Practice these out loud, or whisper them. Then write what you would say in your own words.

- 1 "I wanted the original plan, and I enjoyed part of the new one."

- 2 "You can have a different opinion. I don't need to hide mine."

- 3 "We can stay friends without reviewing everything the same way."

7 My chart

Use the fictional museum trip. This is about harmless preferences, not pressure to accept harmful treatment.

Original hope	Disappointing change	Something the character enjoyed	Room for another person's opinion

8 Draw it

Draw the ticket, folded and open desk, loom pedals, and repaired bowl. Caption different things Malky noticed. No people needed.
