

1 Remember the story

Answer in your own words. Look back at the story if you want.

- 1 What did the teacher do after the drawing was pushed?

- 2 How did Rivky feel after repeated sharp retellings with Basya?

- 3 What did the friends try instead at break?

2 Fact or guess

Read each sentence. Circle Fact if the story shows it for sure.
Circle Guess if it is only an idea someone has.

- | | | | |
|---|--|------|-------|
| 1 | The drawing was returned and the other girl apologized. | Fact | Guess |
| 2 | Rivky knew every imagined sharp reply would have worked. | Fact | Guess |
| 3 | The repeated conversations left Rivky angrier. | Fact | Guess |
| 4 | Changing the subject meant the push was acceptable. | Fact | Guess |
| 5 | Mrs. Stein told Rivky to report renewed mistreatment. | Fact | Guess |
| 6 | The friends tried folded model windows. | Fact | Guess |

Write one fact and one guess from your own day.

3 Think and write

Write what is true for you, or write about a made-up person. You do not have to share anything private.

- 1 Write an invented thank-you for listening followed by a request to try another activity.

- 2 Describe the difference between reporting a continuing problem and repeatedly rehearsing an incident already addressed.

- 3 Write about a fictional friend offering company without imitating hurtful words or inventing revenge.

6 Say it out loud

Practice these out loud, or whisper them. Then write what you would say in your own words.

- 1 "Thank you for listening. Repeating it this way is making me feel worse."

- 2 "We can try another subject without saying what happened was okay."

- 3 "If it happens again, I'll tell the trusted adult helping with it."

7 My chart

Use Rivky's fictional incident. Do not repeat real rumors, name classmates, or ask children to stop seeking help for unresolved or repeated mistreatment.

Concern needing adult help	Helpful listening	Retelling that makes it sharper	Ordinary activity the friends can choose

8 Draw it

Draw the returned drawing, ruler, crooked tree, and folded model window. Caption listening, adult help, and room for another part of the day. No people needed.
